"The Greek people may come to their senses when scarcity and instability start to hit them. In the meantime, what should we do? First of all, we should sternly warn Greece that we expect massive security precautions for our diplomats in Athens and in other Greek cities. Armenian terrorists, who may have been encouraged by the senseless remarks of Papandreou may turn Greece into an haven for international terrorism.

Oktary Eksi of HURRIYET comments on the same subject -- the utterings of Greek Prime Minister Papandreou. He asks the question whether there can be any link between this statement of Papandreou and the Armenian attack in Rome against the life of a Turkish diplomat.

"It is the rerun of an old movie. Both the Greeks and the Armenians are banking on the support of outside powers to exert pressure on Turkey. The Armenian organization ASALA is the puppet of Soviet imperialism, and other Armenian networks derive their support from France. The history may be full of case stories showing scores of victories won on the support of others. But there is no known case that the advocates of such causes have ceased to be the puppets, and the servants of others, Eksi says.

Turkish Prime Minister Bulent Ulusu's response to the Greek prime minister, saying that Turkey has no territorial claims on other countries is the top news item in major dailies Wednesday. Furthermore, the election of Sadi Irmak as the speaker of the Consultative Assembly is also treated extensively.

OUR RADIO: NATO PLANS NEW PRESSURES ON GREECE

TA280835 (Clandestine) Our Radio in Turkish to Turkey 0500 GMT 28 Oct 81

[Station commentary: "Who Is Straining Turkist-Greek Relations?"]

[Text] The Turkish reactionary press has engaged in an intensive effort to strain Turkish-Greek relations following the general elections in Greece. In its publications, the reactionary pro-American press is using the statements made by the new Greek prime minister, Papandreu, to confront the two nations. However, the election made by the Greek people and the viewpoint they voted for is being concealed from our people.

Dear listeners, the Greek people are opposed to NATO, the EEC and the U.S. bases. The great majority of the Greek people is in favor of friendship with the socialist countries. The Greek people want the Balkans to be purged of nuclear weapons. They voted for friendly coexistence with neighboring countries and the solution of the problems through negotiations. The Turkish people and democratic forces also share the same views.

The basic characteristic of the reactionaries in Turkey, however, consists of pro-Americanism and NATOism. The reactionaries exerted great efforts to ensure the return of Greece to NATO's military wing. For years, they have been trying to obstruct the genuine amelioration of Turkish-Greek relations. Those who were talking about good relations and negotiations with Greece are now suddenly arguing that Turkish-Greek relations are strained. What were their points of agreement in the past? These points consisted of NATOism, pro-Americanism and anti-Sovietism. The Greek people toppled the New Democracy Party, which subscribed to these views. The plans of NATO and the NATOites were foiled. The imperialists are now discussing another plan in the Mediterranean.

Dear listeners, the secret NATO plan, which was revealed a few days ago, intends to cause a confrontation among Turkey, Greece and Italy and drag these three countries into a dubious adventure.
